Tea Gardens Sail Past

Wow! What a glorious day to be on or even near the water! Boats from the quaint little tender flying an Australian Flag bigger than itself to a +45 foot cruiser, an imposing catamaran, the tin shed houseboat spewing forth water, and a varied assortment of Aquatic Club boats all vied for their chance to show off in front of the landed folk.

The Duchess and Sundowner showed our flag on the main wharf while the Myall Tourer was our meeting point for the day. There was a good assortment of stalls selling the usual goodies and I've heard that the pizza man was doing a good trade. The day was topped off by some excellent fireworks.

Janis Winn (Tim Motum's sister) has written another book on the Myall Lakes titled Pioneers and History of the Myall River and Lakes which gives and excellent insight into the various points of interest from Tea Gardens to Neranie and everything in-between. The book is available at the Tea Garden's newsagency.

Commodore's Comments:

- ✓ The wharves at Engels and Violet Hill have had some repairs. A big thank you to those that were responsible.
- ✓ The social committee have been busy with ideas and the outings for 2015 will be ready for the next bulletin.
- ✓ I look forward to seeing you at the Christmas get together where I can let you all know what has been happening.

We will let you know the forthcoming outings as soon as we have figured them out. Any suggestions will always be most welcome. Let us know your preferences

Thought for the day:

The only cure for seasickness is to sit on the shady side of an old brick church in the country.
