Last Outing Spit Roast at Tamboi 15/16th October

This event was originally scheduled to be held at Bandicoot but because of the high water level it was transferred to Tamboi. As a venue, Tamboi was a good choice as it was well sheltered and the prawning efforts taking place were both interesting and a culinary delight.

Tim and his helpers managed to get the famous rotisserie together (with a few minor rethinks) and the results were well worth the effort. Thanks all. We are planning to use the equipment again at the March Event 2012.

The evenings were spent around the camp fire with a many a tale told. Overall we had 7 boats and 21 people.

Apology

The last issue referred to Garry Hiles as our Publicity Officer. This was a mistake as Garry is our Public Officer recognised by the Department of Fair Trading. Sorry Garry. We now have a Publicity Sub-Committee. Onya Daphne. If you have any Boat Club news remember to let Daphne know about it.

The Brian Brett Economy Award

It is said that a picture is worth a thousand words. I'm sure Commodore Terry used them all!

Al Ford, ex MLAC Member and personal friend of Terry, was the Marine Rescue Skipper and he is still thoroughly enjoying himself at Terry's expense.

What he picked up on his prop at Joes Cove, a length of rope, was an expensive mishap.

(For those who do not know the story, Brian, our Elf, broke down at Legges Camp after a Club Outing. Al Ford managed to score the tow back to Lemon Tree only to find out, on arrival, that Brian had forgotten(?) to open the air bleed valve on his fuel tank.)

Bad luck Terry. We hope you have Sundowner repaired before the Christmas Party.

Engels Wharf Repairs

A big thanks to Joe Marko, Eric Jones and Jim Geer who, along with incapacitated Kevin Williams, repaired Engels Wharf in record time.

We hear that Nescafe and Coke shares rose substantially with a record profit forecast!

Once again guys, a really big “Well done.”

Christmas Party

The Christmas Party at Violet Hill is on again.

We need people numbers to be given to

Next Meeting Agenda

We would like to keep this meeting short and sweet so please send any agenda items to Alan alan@panma.selfip.com or Terry tnm@tremco.net.au

Thought for the day

Your true value depends entirely on what you are compared with.
